Foreword
Sixth International Conference on eLearning for Knowledge-Based Society

For the sixth year in a row, I am very proud that The International Journal of the Computer, the Internet and Management (IJCIM) has the privilege of publishing the Special Issue on eLearning. The Proceedings of the Sixth International Conference on eLearning for Knowledge-Based Society includes 44 papers from 18 countries. To once again devote an entire issue to eLearning is thus an extraordinary opportunity for us.

Sample papers are on GooLearning, New Education Pedagogies, Human Physiology e-Course, Personalization Algorithms in mLearning, Best Practices in Online Multi-Users Virtual Environments, Free Software, eLearning Short Courses for 52,000 SME Students, Web-Based Learning Management System, Search Engine Optimization, Cyber Newspaper as Media for eLearning, Nanolearn Project, Blended Instruction in Automotive Technology, HCI in eLearning, mLearning, Virtual Learning Environment, Electronic Management Puzzle, Student Online Counseling, SOI Hybrid Learning Model, Web 2.0 in Online Education, Blog and Social Networking for eLearning, Trust in eLearning, Knowledge Extraction and Management for Medical Practitioners, eLearning through Business Simulation Software, WiMax and 3G to Support eLearning, and etc.

In my capacity as the Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal of the Computer, the Internet and Management, I would like to thank those who have made the Sixth International Conference on eLearning for Knowledge-based Society and its Proceedings possible. The main organizers are the Computer Association of Thailand under the Royal Patronage of HM the King, the Interdisciplinary Network of the Royal Institute of Thailand under the Royal Patronage of HRH Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn, and Asia Pacific eLearning Association. The supporters are the Ministry of Education, the Ministry of Science and Technology, Thailand Chapter of the ACM, Thailand Chapter of Computer Society of the IEEE, Thailand Chapter of the Internet Society, Thailand Internet Association, Association of Thai Internet Industry, Prof. Dr. Srisakdi Charmonman Foundation, and Assumption University with its College of Internet Distance Education. Also crucial have been our sponsoring organizations, namely, Software Industry Promotion Agency (Public Organization), SVOA Public Company Limited, NOK Precision Component (Thailand) Limited, Samart Telcoms Public Company Limited, and Cisco Systems (Thailand) Limited. Finally, I must also thank all of the members of the Organizing Committee, as well as the staff of the Office of Vice President for Information Technology of Assumption University, staff of College of Internet Distance Education, and staff of the IJCIM.
