Message from eIndustry 2005 Conference Chairman

The International Conference on Computer and Industrial Management (eIndustry 2005) is the second of the three international conferences at Assumption University I have served on and am still serving as the chairman of the organizing committee in the year 2005. The first one was the Second International Conference on eLearning for Knowledge-based Society (eLearning 2005) held August 4-7, 2005. The third will be the International Conference on eBusiness (eBusiness 2005) scheduled for November 19-20, 2005.

The eIndustry 2005 theme is intended to encourage papers on computer and industrial management that contribute to the dynamic perspectives of innovation, change and the competitive process in businesses and industries. It hopes to promote contributions relating to this broad theme from any discipline and/or functional area of computer and industrial management, including computer management, Internet and E-commerce and industrial management.

In my capacity as the Conference Chairman, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the President Emeritus of Assumption University, the President of Assumption University, the Program Chairman, the Conference Secretary, the Coordinator, the speakers, the editors, and supporting staff as well as all other parties who have contributed to the Conference. We are grateful to the sponsors, especially Microsoft Thailand, the Computer Association of Thailand under the Royal Patronage of His Majesty the King, Asia-Pacific eLearning Association, Thailand Chapter of the Association for Computing Machinery, Thailand Joint Chapter of the Computer Society and the Engineering Management Society of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, Thailand Chapter of the Internet Society, the Association of Thai Internet Industry, the Internet Association, and Prof. Dr. Srisakdi Charmonman Foundation. We hope that the Conference will be successful and beneficial to all concerned.

Prof. Dr. Srisakdi Charmonman

eIndustry 2005 Conference Chairman