Foreword

Tenth International Conference on eLearning for Knowledge-Based Society

For the tenth year in a row, I am very pleased that the International Journal of the Computer, the Internet and Management (IJCIM) has the privilege of publishing Proceedings of the Tenth International Conference on eLearning for Knowledge-Based Society including 42 papers from 12 countries. To once again devote an entire issue to eLearning is thus an extraordinary opportunity for us.

Sample papers are on A Newly Proposed E-Learning Law to Promote Education and Lifelong Learning in Thailand; E-Learning for Science and Technology Courses in the SIM University; Online Learning Meets Social Media: A Better Understanding of Learners and Learning Resources; Opening the “Black Box” of Collective Intelligence; Designing “Science Breaker” Game for Children Science Learning; E-Learning: An Effective Way of Learning for Young Children; Mobile Application Integration Framework for Educational Institutions; Past, Present and Future: From Traditional Language Laboratories to Digital Language Laboratories and Multimedia ICT Suites; Moodle Preference Analysis in Computer Science Faculty Students at Soegijapranata Catholic University; and Educational Game as Way to Help Child’s Curiosity.

In my capacity as the Senior Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal of the Computer, the Internet and Management, I would like to thank those who have made the Tenth International Conference on eLearning for Knowledge-Based Society and its Proceedings possible. The main organizers are the Computer Association of Thailand Under the Royal Patronage of HM the King, The Interdisciplinary Network of the Royal Institute of Thailand Under the Royal Patronage of HRH Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn, Srisakdi Charmonman Institute of eLearning of Siam Technology College, The Interdisciplinary Network Foundation for Research and Development, Asia-Pacific eLearning Association, Thailand Chapter of the Internet Society, Thailand Chapter of the Computer Society of the IEEE, Thailand Chapter of the ACM, Thailand Internet Association, Association of Thai Internet Industry, Prof. Srisakdi Charmonmam Foundation, and Siam Technology College. Also crucial has been our sponsoring organizations, Siam Technology College, and the National Broadcasting and Telecommunications Commission. Finally, I must also thank all the members of the Organizing Committee, as well as the staff of the Office of President Emeritus of Siam Technology College, and staff of the IJCIM.
